Structure, governance and management

The charity is a company limited by guarantee and was formed on 18 July 2007. It is governed by a memorandum and articles of association dated 18 July 2007, as amended by special resolution dated 7 May 2009. The liability of the members in the event of the company being wound up is limited to a sum not exceeding £5.

Method of recruitment and appointment of trustees

The trustees of the charity are also the directors for the purposes of company law and are appointed by the members at the AGM.

Objectives and activities

The charity's objects

To advance the education of the public in the arts in particular by the organising of an annual arts festival in Chapel Allerton.

The charity's main activities

The Chapel Allerton Arts Festival is an annual event, held the week following the August Bank Holiday. It includes diverse arts' events during the week and a street Festival with a range of arts and crafts activities, music and refreshments from Friday night to Sunday teatime. It is aimed at, features and is organised by, local people of all ages. The Festival is entirely organised and managed by volunteers, from the planning committee who meet through the year, to a team of stewards, stage crew and other volunteers who help for a few hours each during the event.

Public benefit statement

In setting our objectives and planning our activities our Trustees have given serious consideration to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit and in particular the advancement of education and the arts.

Achievements and performance

The various sub groups swung into action bringing us events during the week both indoors and out then the wealth of things that happen at the weekend from stalls through to stewarding, performances, children's activities, litter picking and quietly in the background the counting of money.

This year saw a successful funding application which led to the launch of The Chapel Allerton Big band who are now hitting the big time under their new name mojo78. And also brought us Chapel Allerton Fringe – bands playing in various venues on the Saturday afternoon. Feedback tells me this venture was very well received and hopes to be repeated this year under a new title.

But it would impossible to report back on this particular festival without more than a passing reference to the weather. Despite our positivity rain really did almost stop play on the Saturday. Some intrepid Festival goers hung on in there but sadly the resulting lack of punters meant that collections in the buckets and bar takings were way down.

However, all clouds have silver linings and we used the borrowed Coop gazebos to keep our stewards dry and cover the children's area. This looked so effective that we plan to do the same this year even if it doesn't rain. So planning continues for our 20th birthday and hopefully our concerted efforts at fund raising will mean we have a superb Festival 2017.

In conclusion, and in spite of the 'challenging' weather the |Festival achieved its goal of delivering a good balance of events that appealed to and engaged a wide range of people from across the community.

Financial review

Net expenditure for the year was £10,888, all relating to unjestricted funds.

Reserves policy

The charity's free reserves at the year end were £7,884.

Something of the Property of t

 $(x,y) = \operatorname{det}_{\mathcal{A}}(x,y) + \operatorname{det}_{\mathcal{A}}(x,y) +$

In the second sec

At least half of the cost of the Chapel Allerton Festival (£15,000-£20,000) is met through audience bucket donations and bar income during the event. It is recognised that dependence on this income to pay suppliers is a risk to the company. Donations are voluntary, bar sales cannot be guaranteed and therefore the expected level of income may not be received, particularly if the event is disrupted - for example due to bad weather.

The trustees of Chapel Allerton Festival have therefore committed to building up and holding a reserve of between £17,500 and the total cost of the most recent Festival. This reserve will ensure that all suppliers can be paid in full no matter what level of audience income is received.

The level of reserve held will be reviewed at the end of each financial year. Planning for the subsequent Festival will take account of the level of reserve held, particularly in terms of the likelihood of income from an 'additional' project matching its cost:

For cash flow reasons the full reserve must be available in the company's current account between August and October (the Festival is fixed as the weekend after the August Bank Holiday every year).

The 2016 Festival was badly affected by rain therefore income (both bucket and bar) was low. This considerably ran down our reserves. 2017 Festival planning took account of this and was not adversely affected. However, it did not materially change the weaker than ideal reserves position and reversing this continues to feature in our planning.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees report and the financial statements in accordance with the applicable law and UK Accounting Standards.

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable complany for the year. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently:

observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;

make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

state whether applicable UK accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; prepare the accounts on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice; Accounting and Reporting by Charities (Charities SORP (FRS102)), and in accordance with the special provisions of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Signed on behalf of the board of trustees:

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Chapel Allerton Festival

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charitable company for the year ended 31 March 2017, which are set out on pages 7 to 11.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the charitable company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the charitable company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- 1 accounting records were not kept in respect of the company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
- 2 the accounts do not accord with those records; or
- 3 the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
- 4 the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities [applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)].

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a groper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Chapel Allerton Festival Notes to the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2017

1 Accounting policies

Basis of accounting

These accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention with items recognised at cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant note(s) to these accounts. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015) The charity constitutes a public benefit entity as defined by FRS 102.

Reconciliation with previous Generally Accepted Accounting Practice In preparing the accounts

The trustees have considered whether in applying the accounting policies required by FRS 102 and the Charities SORP FRS 102 the restatement of comparative items was required. They have determined that no such restatement is required.

As a consequence, there has been no change to the accounting policies since last year. No changes have been made to the accounts for previous years.

Going concern

The trustees are satisfied that there are no material uncertainties about the charity's ability to continue.

Incoming resources

All incoming resources are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SOFA) when the charity becomes entitled to the resources, it is more likely than not that the trustees will receive the resources and the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Grants and donations

Grants and donations are only included in the SOFA when the charity has unconditional entitlement to the resources.

Where grants are related to performance and specific deliverables, they are accounted for as the charity earns the right to consideration by its performance.

Expenditure and liabilities

Expenditure is recognised on an accrual basis as a liability is incurred. Liabilities are recognised where it is more likely than not that there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to pay out the resources and the amount of the obligation can be measured with reasonable certainty.

Taxation

As a charity the organisation benefits from rates relief and is generally exempt from income tax and capital gains tax but not from VAT. Irrecoverable VAT is included in the cost of those items to which it relates.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity.

Restricted funds are subjected to restrictions on their expenditure imposed by the donor or through the terms of an appeal.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund in included in the notes to the accounts.
